Transforming a nation,
one life at a time

"How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!"

Emma is literally getting her hands and feet dirty walking through the villages bringing the good news to the nation of Mozambique.

In December and January, she took a team of leaders with her to the remote districts of Lomego and Caia.

As a result, many people's lives have been radically transformed as they heard the gospel, and learned what means to be a true disciple of Jesus Christ.

Often of these beautiful people have nothing but a dirt floor to sleep on at night. "I was blown away by the people's hospitality. They looked after us so well and were so gracious."

God is so good to provide for and protect Emma and our Mozambican leaders as they put their hands to the plough ministering to the people in remote areas.

Emma will be leading more teams during this year, with the plan for our Moz leaders to replicate the work in other remote parts of the country.

Also Sofala Province prayer co-ordinator, Laura, reports that the new President of Mozambique is seeking to break the traditional thinking that directs Mozambicans in their lives. Let's pray for the President.

Note from Keith:

Let us pray Psalm 63 for our Moz Outreach missionaries and for the furthering of the cause of Christ in the

FEBRUARY PRAYER
1	Pray Ps 63: 1, 6, 9 & 11 exposing and binding the night of natural and spiritual darkness, danger, need, poverty, deception, lying, weariness, insecurity, longing, hunger and thirst of the unreached and unsaved.	16	Declare that our MozO missionaries and those Christians working in the nations and Mozambique for the cause of Christ, those who feel spiritually dry and weak, in a wilderness, will find joy in meditation on God and in fellowship with Him.

10	Declare that their 'whole being will be satisfied', that their relationship with God is strengthened, that they stay close to God hidden under His 'protective wings' and 'upheld by His hand' (Verses 5-8).	25	Praise God for His cause and the opportunity we have to further His cause in the nations, particularly amongst unreached people, particularly amongst the 10 least reached people groups in Mozambique.
11		26
12		27
13	Declare that the enemies of the cause of Christ, particularly amongst the unreached, are defeated. Declare that they are delivered over to and defeated by the power of the sword, which is the Word of God, brought by our missionaries and the servants of Christ's cause. (Verses 9-11).	28	Petition God to open our eyes, to have an expectancy to see the daily opportunities we have to further His cause (Verse 11).

The "Pied Piper"

To have a white lady stay in the village was a huge novelty.

Most of the children had never even seen a white lady, but where ever I went, they were always following me around and staring at me giggling, wanting to get close to me.

True Discipleship

Discipleship is when those who have been taught go, and teach others.

This is discipleship "in action".

Demons Flee At The Name Of Jesus

In an outreach to Lamego, a young woman (pictured right) with pain on each side of her eyes was healed.

Her name is Titeria and she is about 30 years old.

When she came forward for prayer, it was clear she had a demonic problem. As we prayed for her she started experiencing a lot chest pain.

After praying and casting out the demons, she sat down, but the pain continued.

Praise the Lord, by the Sunday she came to church totally free, totally set free and bursting with joy and energy. She came up to say, "Look at me. The pain has gone and I am healed."

God worked a miracle in this lady's life. This is what it is all about – transforming lives! Thankyou Jesus.

"Ciao Mike": Farewell To A Hero

Mike and Jen McMahon joined MozOutreach as house parents, working on the field for 6 months.

Mike cheeky as always

Mike loved nothing more than to visit the locals in their homes and tell them the most exciting story he knew; (the gospel and the saving grace and love of Jesus). He taught the guards how to defend themselves in the case of an intrusion, and made the children laugh at his funny antics.

Sadly, Mike passed away recently after a personal battle with cancer. The joy he brought to the lives of people will always be remembered. We know that he is now with the Lord.

One of his significant revelations toward the end of his life was: that regardless of everything, "Jesus is King".

You are loved and missed Mike. Thankyou Mike and Jen for the sacrifice of your time and passion for preaching the good news of Jesus in Africa.
