Women of God

Therefore, I urge you, brothers, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God—this is your spiritual act of worship. Romans 1:1

Where would we be without the women in our ministry?

As the sun rises everyday, so do the people who make up the majority of our missionary and ministry team - women of God - serving in His Name.

Whether they are working in a mud hut in central Mozambique, standing beside a hospital bed holding a dying person's hand, or leading a prayer meeting - they are wholeheartedly in service to Jesus and their fellow human being.

Whether they are praying for the sick, teaching a lesson, preaching the gospel or making tough decisions on a construction site - our women have taken a hold of the above scripture and made it a reality.

Jay congratulating one of our year 5 students after she read a beautiful speech at the end-of-year school celebrations

Here are some of our amazing women involved with this ministry - both western and African - all in various roles - some are single, some married, some widows - all women of God.

Australia - Training for the mission field begins in February.
Africa - Church Planters course in April

Particularly thank Him in advance for all those that will come to know Him this year and become His disciples.

Thank the Lord for those who have great need - spiritual, emotional and physical - that our Father in Heaven has unending compassion and a plan for their lives and by faith will meet those needs according to His riches in glory.

Thank you for your commitment to pray with us for this great work that He has started.

Let us together pray Psalm 103, a hymn of God's love and compassion toward His people.

Note from Greg, Dale and Cheema: As we begin 2007, let us thank Him in advance for the great vision He gave to all Christians - "Go and make disciples of all nations."

Certainly it is too big for any of us individually or corporately - but with Him, all things are possible.
